In today's Gospel, Jesus challenges us by saying "Give, and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap..."

When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts and into our lives.

The Season of Lent

Remember man thou art dust and to dust thou shalt return

Weekly Reflections:

Life is full of temptations. Even when we think we have "conquered" some weakness, it is important to remember that we have not been "cured;" but, have simply learned how to deal with it. The alcoholic cannot afford to think that hanging out in a bar will not be a problem or that just one drink is okay. The wise person is one who tries to avoid temptation as much as possible. The humble person knows that given the right circumstances, anything is possible. Such humility helps us be more compassionate with the failings and shortcomings of others. We all need help and encouragement much more than condemnation.

Say to the Lord, "My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

-Psalm 91:2

Please pick up your 2010 collection envelopes in the Gathering Space of the Church.

Donations are being accepted for the Easter sanctuary flowers. If you would like to donate in memory of a loved one, please put a note in the envelope along with the donation and his or her name will be listed in the bulletin during the Easter season.

Thank you.

Pastor's Rundown:

Did you know that the word Lent means "spring time?" It seems contradictory that the word associated with penance, ashes and sacrifice is rooted in a word that reminds us of new growth and life. These contradictory images actually reflect the flavor of the season. We know that Christ died and the ultimate sacrifice that was but we also know the end of the story, the fact that He defeated this and all death by rising again. This contradictory experience of death and life is the core of our faith. The contradiction of the difficulty and struggles many of us endure in life are overshadowed by our Christian faith giving us hope of a new, everlasting life. So this multifaceted season deserves some attention! Therefore, we are going to be holding Stations of the Cross followed by fellowship in the Family Life Center each Friday during Lent. Different groups will be taking turns leading the prayers. This will be nice so that we can share in different types of prayer experiences. The meals will be a mixture of fish-fries and soup "pot lucks." It would be so great if many of you could join in on these special events throughout the season. Thanks for all those groups who have agreed to take part in these activities. Our Lenten journey of prayer and hope will be marked by these special gatherings on Friday evenings starting at 6 with stations and dinner at 7 (don't worry, if you get stuck at work and just want to come for dinner, that is fine!) God bless each of you as we start this new season!
