Gift Bearers

We are developing a schedule for Gift-Bearers at all of the masses. If you and your family are interested in being a Gift-Bearer, please sign up on the sheet on the Bulletin Board outside the Sacristy or email Sharon Staller at sdstaller@aol.com.

Jesus said to his disciples; "Anyone who hears my words and puts them into practice is like the wise man who built his house on rock.

Know that by your donation to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you will indeed be hearing the words of Jesus and putting them in to practice.

FLC Kitchen Training

There will be mandatory Kitchen Training for all users of the Kitchen to discuss new policies and procedures. Please plan on being present at one of the two sessions on either March 6 or March 13. Both Sessions will begin at 12:00. For more information contact Tracy Staller at 865-388-3649 or tstaller@aol.com

CRAFTY LADIES Kick off 2011

We have started meeting again. Please join us at 9:30 on Tuesday mornings in the garden level. We welcome new members and ideas. More info about us coming in a future bulletin.

Ash Wednesday Mass, March 9th
8:15 AM and 7:30 PM

Due to Lenten services, Friday evenings 7-8 p.m. Adoration will be cancelled until after Easter.

Needed: a ride to church on Sundays for the 10:30am Mass. The lady lives on Boyd's Creek Highway near McDonald's. Call Connie at 577-3881 for more information.

Our March outing will be "Christ In The Smokies" on River Road in Gatlinburg on March 20th. This is the old Christus Gardens. It is under new ownership and has been updated. With its life size figures, music and lighting, it tells the inspirational story of Christ. It's a perfect outing for lent. Please call Grace @ 577-9287 no later than March 13th if you plan on going. Once again, we need an accurate count. Cost is $11.00 per person. You'll be on your own for lunch and then we'll meet at "Christ In The Smokies" at 2:00pm.

C.R.O.S.S. Spaghetti Supper Fundraiser

This is not your normal "run-of-the-mill" spaghetti supper. This delicious spaghetti sauce is a special recipe created over thirty years ago by SFB member, Linda Sunday. The menu includes garlic bread, spring mix salad, and a very large array of home baked goods to choose from for dessert.

There will also be a huge bake sale of home baked goods prepared by several members of the CROSS sponsoring churches. There were over 50 home baked cakes, pies, brownies, pumpkin rolls, and even fried pies donated for this bake sale last year. You have to arrive early to get the best picks!

Event to take place at Seymour First Baptist Church (11621 Chapman Hwy in Seymour) Friday, March 11th from 4-7:00 PM. Eat in or take out for $7.00. Children under 12 with an adult eat free. Tickets can be purchased from Connie Bigelow 577-3881, or Connie's Kitchen at 10231 Chapman Hwy, or at the door the night of the event.

Don't Miss it!

Pastor's Rundown:

This is a big weekend for us here at Holy Family! I know how much we all love having guests at our celebrations and so we are really psyched to welcome Fr. Jeff Vomund. He is the Pastor of Saint Elizabeth, Mother of John The Baptist Catholic Church in St. Louis, MO. Their parish also has a great school called St. Louis Catholic Academy and participates in a Housing Partnership in their district. So we give a big welcome to Fr. Jeff.

We are also getting psyched to celebrate Ash Wednesday this week, so I thought that I would give you a couple of thoughts about what the day means to us as Christians.

Ash Wednesday is a special day that has been honored by Christians for well over ten centuries at the beginning of Lent, the forty day season of preparation for Easter. In the earliest centuries, Christians who had fallen into persistent sin had ashes sprinkled on their bodies as a sign of repentance, even as Job repented "in dust and ashes" (Job 42:6). Around the tenth century, all believers began to signify their need for repentance by having ashes placed on their foreheads in the shape of a cross. Notice: even this sign of sinfulness hinted at the good news yet to come through its shape. Ash Wednesday is not some dour, depressing day because it symbolically anticipates Good Friday and Easter.

Today, celebrations of Ash Wednesday vary among churches that recognize this holiday. More and more Protestant and even evangelical churches hold some sort of Ash Wednesday services. Ashes are placed on our foreheads as a reminder of our mortality and sinfulness. The person who imposes the ashes quotes something like what God once said to Adam after he had sinned: "You are dust, and to dust you shall return" (Gen 3:19). This is the bad news of our sinfulness that prepares us to receive the good news of forgiveness in Christ.

What I value most about Ash Wednesday worship services is the chance for us all to openly acknowledge our frailty and sinfulness. In a world that often expects us to be perfect, on Ash Wednesday we freely confess our imperfections. We can let down our pretenses and be truly honest with each other about who we are. We all bear the mark of sin, from the youngest babies to the oldest seniors. We all stand guilty before a holy God. We all are mortal and will someday experience bodily death. Thus we all need a Savior!

God bless you all,
Fr. Ragan

Each week at mass, we are invited and called to full conscience, active and fruitful participation in the liturgical worship. Consider reading then reflecting on the scriptures for the coming Sunday Mass.

Sunday March 13, 2010

Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7
Psalm 51;3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 14, 17
Romans 5:12-19
Matthew 4:1-11

Gift Giving Opportunity

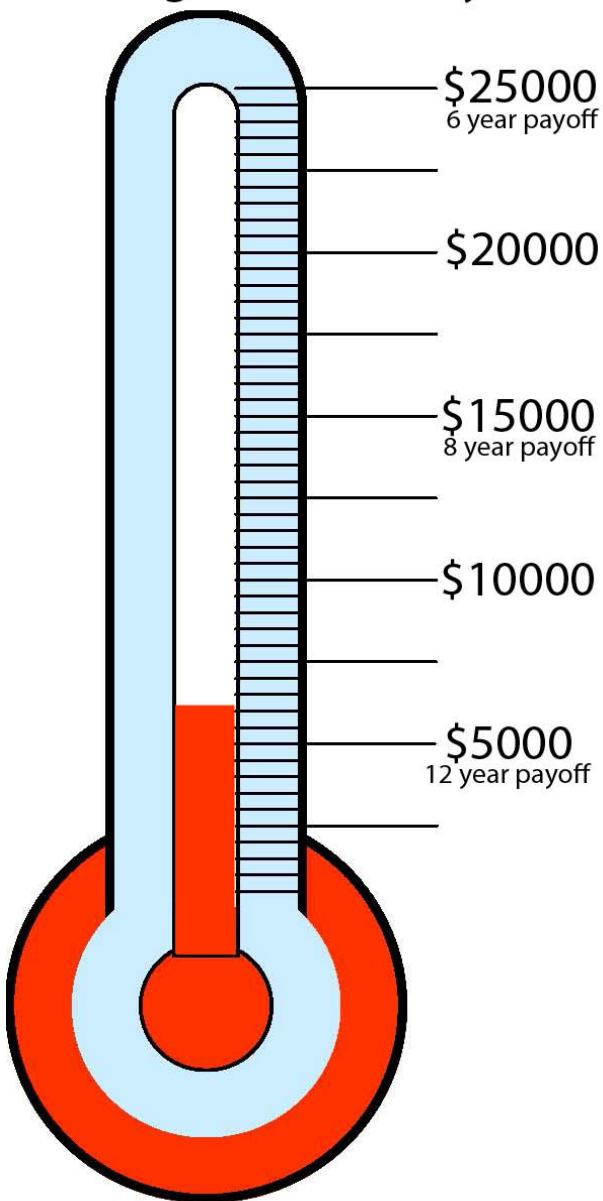

You can honor a loved one by purchasing a leaf, acorn or stone on the Holy Family Giving Tree in the Family Life Center. They make a great birthday, anniversary, and/or memorial gift for a loved one.

All monies go directly to the building fund.

Counseling Services at Holy Family

If any one is in need of help there will be mental health therapists coming to the parish each week to provide services for anyone that might want to access this. You can call 323-4406 and leave a message for Jentry Tillman and he will get back to you as soon as possible to make an appointment. The services include family counseling, couples counseling, marriage prep, individual counseling for adults or children. The counselor will meet with you here at the parish office in private. It is totally confidential and provided on a sliding fee basis from $80-$5/ hour, determined by your income.
