Jesus went up the mountain, and he began to teach them saying, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy..."

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you can show your love for our Lord and your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone and frightened.

The Legion of Mary meets on Monday mornings at 9:00 AM on the garden level. All are invited to attend.

We're extending an invitation to ALL parishioners to join us in praying the ROSARY every Sunday at 10:00 am right before the 10:30 mass.

New green laminated "Traditional Catholic Prayers" sheets can be found in the pew pockets. These have been prepared by the Legion of Mary for everyone to reference Prayers of the Rosary and a few other beautiful Catholic prayers.

The Year of the Priest

A Daily Prayer To Mary For Priests:

O loving Mother Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your sons who are close to you because of their priestly ordination and because of the power which they have received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs them so much. Be their comfort, be their joy, be their strength, and especially help them to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy.

(By J.J. Cardinal Carberry)

Mary, Queen of Priests, pray for them. Help them to faithfully love and serve Jesus. Help them lead many souls to Jesus in the Eucharist!

"Only after the Last Judgment will Mary get any rest; from now until then, she is much too busy with her children."

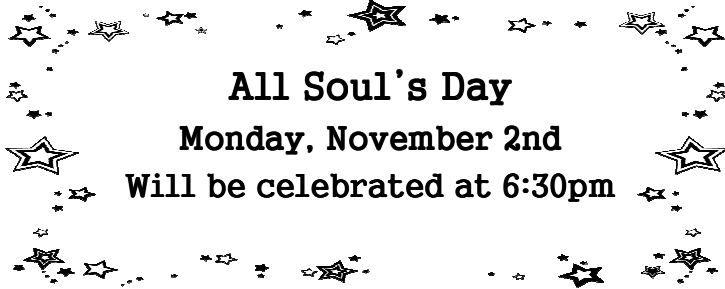

-St. John Vianney

Forming Good Stewards

Prepared by Deacon Gerald J "Jerry" Martinez, Director of Stewardship Steward Conversion and Formation, Archdiocese of New Orleans

"Blessed are the Pure in Spirit . . ." Matthew 5:1-12a

The passive tone of the typical translation of the Beatitudes in the Sermon on the Mount in St. Matthew's Gospel must be read in concert with the mandate to act in St. Luke's version of the same event in his Sermon on the Plain [Luke 6:20-38]. Rev. Abuna Elias Chacour, a Melkite Catholic priest who was born in Biram in Galilee and whose family and fellow villagers were forced off of their land and out of their homes by the Israelis, speaks Aramaic, the language that Jesus spoke. He translates the Beatitudes in a more proactive way. Instead of the familiar "Blessed . . ." he begins with the phrase "Get up, go ahead, do something, move, you who are hungry and thirsty for justice, for you shall be satisfied; Get up, go ahead, do something, move, you peacemakers, for you shall be called children of God . . ." Jesus was challenging the people listening to him, and he is saying to us, Get up, go ahead, do something, move!

Are we?

Service is the rent we pay to be living.

It is the very purpose of life and not something you do in your spare time.

Pastoral Ponderings...

Last Sunday was a special day because we heard Jesus "call" Bartimeus to come close to better "see" Christ! Our CCD classes got to hear about how Jesus is calling people to be religious leaders in our community. It was great because we had some sisters come and speak about how God called them to follow the Lord in their commitment to their community. We also had a visitor to our parish, Fr. Larry Snyder, the President of Catholic Charities USA, our national office for the Catholic Charities network across the country. He has been called by God to lead us to a new awareness of poverty in our own country and how we can respond to it through great agencies like Catholic Charities of East Tennessee, one of the 167 agencies that make up the second largest social service provider in the United States. Bartemaus' response to Jesus is not just a model for priests and nuns but for all the baptized! Christ calls us each day to live out our baptismal commitment to love and serve one another. Here at Holy Family people respond much like Bartemaus in that we see Christ in each other and in the Eucharist and follow Christ in various ministries of prayer and action. Your response to Jesus' call makes our parish better and better! Thanks to all of you for responding to the Lord and being present and attentive to his love.

God bless

The 40 Days for Life Campaign is in full swing in Knoxville. Members of the Legion of Mary have volunteered to participate each Monday from 12-2 PM and would welcome any parishioners who would like to join in this prayerful witness to the sacredness of all life. Contact Ann Dennis 573-1586.

Each week at mass, we are invited and called to full conscience, active and fruitful participation in the liturgical worship. Consider reading then reflecting on the scriptures for the coming Sunday Mass.
