The Gospel predicts end times; our challenge though is to live faithfully now. When we live in conformity to the Word, hearing Jesus's words and living them out, the future holds no fear for us.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, know that you are hearing the words of Jesus and living them out.

Weekly Reflections - Parish Secretary-Volume 13, Issue 1

Throughout history, people have tried to see what the future would hold. In every era, there are those who warn that the end of the world is near. Focusing on such things is not going to help us become good disciples of Christ. There are many things that are beyond our understanding and knowledge. They remind us that we are finite and how much we need G God's grace. Our focus needs to be on the present and discerning what we should do today. Trust the future to God.

*O Lord, my allotted portion and my cup,
You it is who hold fast my lot.
-Psalm 16:5*

Pastoral Ponderings...

"From Seymour to Washington and then Seymour to Nashville!" That phrase describes my week. It has been so cool to be more and more a part of life here at Holy Family, such great discussions in Renew groups, totally fun youth group, spirit filled masses, meeting with the service-focused parish council and lively CCD classes! What a great place. Friday I will be spending in Washington, I serve on the Policy Committee of the board of Catholic Charities-USA. This has been a part of my work at Catholic Charities, representing our region in policy issues related to services to the poor. We will be making decisions about what concerns CC-USA will advocate for in coming quarter. I can't wait to tell my friends up there about Holy Family. I will try to represent us well! What's cool about CC-USA is that we represent the needs of the poor and vulnerable to the decision makers who are often focused on other things! I've got to say that I'm psyched that we are a part of a Church that recognizes how important it is to speak out for the voiceless in important decisions!
